HINT:

Reason why you see a lot of races require this two week pre-registration deadline is so that they can get an accurate order of the number and size of t-shirts to the company making the t-shirts. So, all race day registrants and also all those that haven't pre-registered on or before April 3rd will be subject to a first come first serve standard based on how many extra shirts the event organizers have purchased. Long story short, always pre-register 😊
